Color Mixer

By Holzchopf

1   Color selection panel

Mix any four colors here and select your color from the outcome. Mixing is done by linear interpolation.

2   Selection information

Detailed information about the selected color.

3   Base color

Click these color indicators to select the four base colors that make up your mix.

4   Selector

Drag around or place this by mouse to select a color from your mix.

5   Color indicator

This panel shows the color you selected.

6   Color information

Numerical description of your color, namely the red, green and blue components of the color as well as its hex-code.